

ORLEANS

O. W. Locke, Reporter
A. O. Austin, Business Agent

Thank You.

As other duties demand attention elsewhere, my services as reporter for the Monitor will cease with this issue. To the many friends who have patiently endured my inquiries for the past 18 months, I extend my sincere thanks. Whatever measure of success has attended my efforts has been made possible by your kindly cooperation. For my successor I bespeak the same courtesy that you have extended to me.

Very sincerely,
O. W. Locke.

ORLEANS

Mrs. O. B. Dodge was quite ill last week.

T. Belval is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. H. C. Potter is much improved in health.

F. J. Kinney is taking his annual inventory.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hardy visited in North Troy Monday.

Harry Cameron is home from Boston for the holidays.

Miss Edith Ruggles is spending her vacation in Boston.

Cecil Bennett visited his people at Holland over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Besaw visited at Sherbrooke on Christmas day.

Henry Baldwin has been ill the past week, but is now improving.

Miss Mildred Bundy spent Christmas with her people at Lowell.

Miss Vera Richardson is visiting friends in Manchester this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nault spent Christmas with friends in Barton.

C. F. Stearns is assisting Leon Swett in the Up to Date grocery.

Mrs. A. C. Harris was ill at St. Johnsbury several days last week.

Hasland Sears of Springfield, Mass., recently called on Orleans friends.

J. B. Webster of Lyndonville is the guest of his cousin, H. D. Stannard.

Miss Ethel Elliott spent Christmas with her mother in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Cook of Richford is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Collette.

A. C. Stannard is taking his annual inventory in the Park View garage.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hardy have been visiting her parents at Hinsdale for several days.

M. J. Reynolds was the guest of Charles Darling at Barton Christmas day.

Herbert Bridges of Barton spent Christmas with Mrs. Bridges in Orleans.

The checker contest now stands 41 to 28 in favor of the side led by Hiram Allen.

Miss Leola Hogaboom spent Monday with her people at South Newport.

Miss Vera Smith visited friends at Newport Center from Saturday until Tuesday.

Malcolm Colton and Donald Dickens are home from U. V. M. for the holidays.

Miss Freda Stearns is home from teaching in Albany for the holiday vacation.

Alfred Cota of South Paris, Me., is stopping with his mother and sisters this week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Trenholme and son spent Christmas with relatives at Ayers Cliff.

Mrs. Alice Moranville of Newport visited her son, Edward LaFlam, on Christmas day.

Miss Frances Lawrence is home from Lyndon Institute for the two weeks' vacation.

Miss Robinson, community nurse spent Christmas with her people at Haverhill, N. H.

Archie Yates of Burlington spent Christmas week with his mother, Mrs. Samuel Mitchell.

Mrs. Nettie Wedge spent Christmas at the home of her brother, T. J. Corley, in Irasburg.

Miss Bertha Richardson of Springfield, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Webster.

Miss Florence Gillis and Charles went to visit guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hawse.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hartson spent Christmas day with the family of his brother at Ayers Cliff.

Clarence Hale of Montgomery spent Sunday and Monday with his cousin, Don Farrar.

Miss Dorothy Potter has been assisting in the Hunter & Potter store during the holidays.

Miss Mae Willey is visiting the family of her brother, Erwin Willey, at Waltham, Mass.

Howard Wakefield of Bradford is stopping with his mother, Mrs. Katherine Wakefield, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Aiken visited at the home of his sister at North Troy Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Emily Smith's Sunday school girls and her mother carried her a Christmas tree Friday.

Henry Forrest of West Burke has been with his mother, Mrs. Martha Forrest, for a few days.

Mrs. Winifred Tripp of Boston is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wilkie, for the holidays.

Christmas trade is reported to have been better than usual in the various stores in the village this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Turnbull entertained their children and grandchildren at a Christmas party.

Andrew Rogers and family of Newport were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rogers Sunday and Monday.

Miss Mildred Mayo was called to her home in Newport last week Tuesday by the illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Jenness and Arthur Emerson visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Going at Burke Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Moulton spent Christmas at Lisbon, N. H. Mrs. Moulton will make a longer stay.

Albert Caron is home from the Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst, Mass., for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turnbull and two children of Greenfield, Mass., are with their parents for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Jones of St. Johnsbury spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bennett and two children spent Christmas with the family of her brother at West Burke.

Miss Harriet Austin of Barton was the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Austin, Sunday and Monday.

Miss Alice Hughes was home from Boston to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hughes.

Miss Ruth Cutler was home from Littleton to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cutler.

Mine Host Parlin entertained a party of 86 people with music and dancing at the Valley House Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shippee of St. Johnsbury visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shippee, over Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Brown were guests of his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. Brown, at Barton Sunday.

Maynard Hawse of Hanover, N. H., was home to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawse.

Leon Badger of Manchester visited Mrs. Badger at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mae Richardson over Christmas.

Miss Eva Chandler of New Haven, Conn., is stopping with her grandmother, Mrs. A. D. Chandler, Christmas week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Proulx of Rock Island are stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Humphrey, for the week.

The skating rink has afforded much sport for the children for the last few days. Joseph Kettle is caring for it this winter.

Miss Ruth Richmond is spending the holidays with the family of her sister, Mrs. Maynard Skinner, at Bingham, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Reed and two children of St. Johnsbury spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jenkins and two daughters spent Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Day in Brownington.

Mrs. Harley Stevens has closed her labors in the Austin pharmacy, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will go to house-keeping at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Twombly visited at the home of their son, E. M. Twombly, at Waterbury from Saturday until Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Aldrich has returned to her home at Derby Line. She will teach at Muskegon, Mich., for the balance of the school year.

The Village Improvement society will hold a dance at the Opera Hall Monday evening, January 1st. Concert from 8 to 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Flora Guild of Orleans and Miss Lizzy Bryant of Brownington were guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Wells at a Christmas dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Edwin Dudley spent Christmas with her husband at the home of her mother in Thetford. Mr. Dudley has employment there in a machine shop.

The girls in the N. E. telephone office had a Christmas party of 15 in the office Saturday evening, which they were the recipients of many gifts from appreciative friends.

Carroll Brooks of Alston, Mass., recently visited his sister, Mrs. F. H. Frasier. On his return to Massachusetts he will enter the employ of the Public Market.

Mrs. G. W. Magoon is steadily improving in health and wishes to express her gratitude to the many friends who so kindly remembered her Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Stannard spent Sunday and Monday with Judge and Mrs. W. M. Wright at Barton. Miss Laura Case was also a guest for the Christmas festivities Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John McLellan of Barton are stopping with their daughter, Mrs. Hazen Converse, about two weeks before starting for Florida January 2d to spend the winter.

Mrs. F. J. Parlin and daughter, Violet, are spending the school vacation in the family of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Kaplinger, at Springfield, Mass. Mrs. Parlin will probably stay a few weeks.

A merry Christmas party gathered with Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Gross Monday. This included Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cullen and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Dutton and all their children.

Mrs. Augusta Young of Newport is spending the winter at the Valley House. Her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Young, of Montpelier joined her for Christmas, also Mrs. Ida Jenne of Newport.

E. B. Willey of Corinth has been in Orleans for a few days. It is understood that he has finished his lumbering operations at Corinth and will soon go on the road selling calendars for the Fletcher Co., Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Blodgett, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Blodgett of Barton and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Mathews and two children of Glover were all Christmas day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bullard.

The postoffice force is rendering extra service during the holidays by taking a team and delivering the parcel post mail. The patrons will doubtless appreciate this favor rendered gratuitously.

Since selling their farm in Brownington Mr. and Mrs. Max Porter are staying with his mother, Mrs. E. M. Porter, until they find another home. Mr. Porter is now working for F. H. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bradford, James Scholes and Miss Clara Scholes of Shorville, Miss Eva Scholes of Greenfield, Mass. and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Miller of Orleans all spent Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Derick.

Miss Grace Williams of Auburn-dale, Mass., has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Marston, and Mrs. M. L. Peterson for several days during the holidays. Mrs. S. W. P. Hamilton of Newport was their guest one day last week.

Christmas morning Miss Helen Beebe, assisted by six girls and Norman Lathrop and Dean Laflam, who played violins, visited seven homes where they sang and played Christmas carols. The shut-ins were indeed grateful for this thoughtful remembrance.

The Book and Thimble club will meet January 3 with Stella Twombly and Maud Morse at Miss Twombly's home on Maple street. Will club members please plan to bring the customary 50 cents for gentlemen's night expenses.

Miss Hazel Vance spent Christmas with her people at North Danville. Miss Gwendola Gilson with her people at Lyndonville; John Bishop with his people at Lisbon; and Miss Hazel Braham with her people at Lowell. They are all employed in the Parker-Young Co.'s office.

Following the usual custom, members of Malta Commandry, No. 10, met in one of the club rooms for their usual observance of Christmas day, its origin and teaching. A lib-

Fresh Goods Just Arrived

Buckwheat Flour, 4 pounds for 25 cents.
Sunkist Prunes, 18 and 20 cents a pound.
Granulated Corn Meal, 4 cents a pound.
Oatmeal, 5 cents a pound.
Appricots, 38 cents a pound.
Evaporated Apple, 25 cents a package of 15 oz.
Graham Flour, 5 cents a pound.
St. Johnsbury Crackers, 100 to the box for 55 cts.
D. A. R. Brand of Red Salmon Flat Tins, 28 cents a tin.

Men's Muleskin Faced Gloves well manufactured, 30 and 35 cents a pair.
Buttermilk and Borax, and Pure Glycerine Toilet Soap, 5 cakes 25 cents.
Boneless Smoked Shoulders, 25 cents a pound, 7 to 9 pounds.
Squires Globe Brand Bacon and Frankforts, 25 cents a pound.
Del Monte Seedless Raisins, 22 cents a package, seeded 20 cents.

The UP-TO-DATE GROCERY

LEON E. SWETT, Proprietor

Postoffice Square

Orleans, Vt.

1923

Start right with a supply of our Account Books, Diaries and Desk Memorandums, Filing Cases and Office Supplies.

We Wish You A Happy and Prosperous New Year

Kinney's Pharmacy

Orleans,

Vermont

At Austin's Drug Store

We trust that your Christmas was Merry and we hope your New Year may be Happy

You can make the New Year Happier for others by sending

New Year Greetings

We have a good assortment of New Year and "Thank You" Cards. We can save you real money on merchandise for New Year Gifts.

If some friend sent you money as a gift see what it will buy here before you spend it elsewhere.

Special Prices This Week Only

Diaries and Account Books for 1923

Near the Bridge

The Rexall Store

ORLEANS VERMONT

away were read.

The exercises and Christmas tree at the hall Friday night were fine and all enjoyed a good time. Much credit is due the teachers.

School in district No. 1 closed Friday for a two weeks' vacation with exercises and a tree, which was loaded with presents for both teacher and pupils.

Mrs. Jennie Coolbeth is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marsh, while Mr. Coolbeth is chopping in Charleston for J. A. Bates.

About 30 young people gave William Nichols a surprise recently on his birthday and he received several presents. A good time was enjoyed by all.

BROWNINGTON CENTER
Mrs. L. N. Lund spent the week-end with Mr. Lund at Orleans.

Miss Alice Ennor spent Christmas with friends in St. Johnsbury.

Miss Jennie Chamberlain is spending the vacation at her home in North Troy.

Miss Laura Whitehill is having a week's vacation from her school at Echo Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grandy of Orleans spent the week-end with Mrs. Grandy's uncle, A. P. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wright spent Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lathrop, at Orleans.

Raymond Lafae and Miss Naomi Lathrop were married at Orleans Wednesday, December 20. Congratulations.

School closed Friday afternoon with a Christmas tree for the school. Several of the parents and friends attended and enjoyed the exercises. The teacher, Miss Chamberlain, received several nice gifts from the school and individual pupils, showing the love and esteem they have for their teacher.

A reception was given to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lafae at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lafae Saturday evening. About 50 were present and the evening was very pleasantly spent with dancing and games. A sum of money was presented to them and they have the best wishes of a host of friends. They will reside for the present at Orleans where they both have employment.

EVANSVILLE
Miss Esther Smith is visiting her friend, Miss Vera Leland.

Frank Lapierre is visiting his sister, Mrs. Ada Prime, in Boston.

Mrs. Remont has finished work at Frank Rowe's and returned to her home at Barton.

Miss Lula Heath of Orleans spent the week-end with her cousin, Mrs. U. W. Spencer.

Mrs. Wm. Devereaux visited at the home of her son, R. A. Devereaux, at Glover Wednesday.

Miss Viola Heath was home from her work at Orleans for the week-end and Christmas.

Raymond Foster and Leo Stetson of Burlington are spending the holidays with their parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowley of Newport spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Griffin.

Mrs. M. E. Willis and Miss Ruth Chappell have gone to their homes at Newport and Troy to spend the Christmas vacation.

Clarence and Maurice Tracy of Dorchester, Mass., arrived here Sunday night to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tracy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee and daughter, Venessa, of Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt and son, Warwick, and Mrs. George Hunt had Christmas dinner at C. J. Maxfield's.

Rev. and Mrs. Vasey and little daughter spent Christmas with Ellis Robinson and family at the Center and attended the Christmas tree and exercises at the church in the evening.

School closed here Friday afternoon with a Christmas tree and exercises by the pupils at the schoolhouse. The exercises were repeated at the church Saturday evening and were much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Willey and sons, Floyd and Harold, and Safford Gillilan and little son of Newport were entertained at Frank Gillilan's on Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hilliard and son, Reynolds, were entertained at Mrs. Della Hilliard's; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster and family spent the day at Arthur Miles'; and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Devereaux and Andrew Twombly at the home of Mrs. Caroline Jenkins.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Pastor, Rev. Joseph Vasey

10.45 Divine worship. Subject, "Taking Stock."

11.45 Sunday school.

7.30 p. m. Evening praise service. Subject, "Waste."

We cordially invite all members of the community to attend these meetings.

WESTMORE
Mrs. Kate Fisher of Sutton is visiting Mrs. Lula Tatrow.

Fred Tatrow is home from his work in Sutton for Christmas.

Oscar Lyon visited at I. A. Lyon's in Charleston over Sunday.

Norris Crowe and family of Charleston visited at Joseph Tatrow's Sunday.

Dorothy Calkins and Charlie Cole are home from their schools for the holidays.

Percival Daniels is home from Bay-path Institute, Springfield, Mass., for the holidays.

C. H. Atkins of Orleans spent Sunday and Monday with his sister, Mrs. Clara Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messier of Irasburg spent Christmas with her father, Joseph Willis.

Mrs. E. C. Hunt who is living with her granddaughter, Mrs. Ruth Marshall, in St. Johnsbury, is quite ill with the grip.

To Our Many Customer Friends

We thank you one and all for the generous patronage that you have given us during the year now drawing to a close, and especially for the large Christmas trade, which has far exceeded any previous year.

We trust that the service we have tried to give to our customers has been appreciated by them. If we have failed to please every single one, it certainly was not intentional, and we assure you that we are going to try harder in 1923 to please you than ever before, and right here EVERYONE in this store wishes EVERYONE in your home a HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

HUNTER & POTTER
ORLEANS, VT.

Orleans County's Leading Food Store

New Year Thought

We are very grateful for the very generous patronage we have enjoyed the past year and will try to merit your continued confidence.

We shall endeavor to improve our service this coming year and overcome mistakes of the past and hope to better aid our patrons through the benefit of our 12 years of established business experience.

SPECIAL FOR THE OPENING YEAR
Sweet Wrinkled Peas, 2 cans 25c

C. E. JENKINS

PUBLIC MARKET

Orleans,

Vermont

Domino Cane Sugars

Always Clean

Domino Cane Sugars are weighed, packed and sealed by machine. There is no chance for flies, dirt or dust to get into the sugar on its way from the refinery to you. Every carton or bag is full weight of pure, sweet cane sugar—the highest quality made.

"Sweeten it with Domino"

Twombly & Colton

'Phone 90

Orleans, Vt.

We thank you for your generous patronage thru the year just closing and extend to all

New Year's Greetings

E. L. BASSETT

Main St. Opposite the Bank. Tel. 32.12
ORLEANS, VERMONT